

Occoneechee Council: Camp Campbell

Map to Camp Campbell

Camp Campbell, operated by Occoneechee Council, is just over the Virginia border on Kerr Lake.

To get to Camp Campbell, you drive north of Henderson on NC 39

DIRECTIONS TO CAMP CAMPBELL FROM RALEIGH

Take US-1 (Capital Boulevard) north from Raleigh to Henderson to the NC 39 Exit; turning left (North) onto NC 39. This route will take you through greater Henderson where you will meet (and cross over) Interstate 85.

Or take Interstate 85 north from Durham to the intersection (crossover) with NC 39, exiting IS 85 then turning left (North) onto NC 39 and crossing over IS 85.

Proceed north on NC 39 approximately 12 miles to Townville (city limits, fire department, school on your left)

Continue north on NC39 approximately 1.7 miles north of Townville; then turn right onto Rock Springs Baptist Church Road. (The road sign points to Henderson Point). This intersection is also marked, obviously, by Rock Springs Baptist Church - a stone church and cemetery which you will pass on your left as you continue north on Rock Springs Baptist Church Road).

Continuing north on Rock Springs Baptist Church Road, at about 3 miles you should encounter the Right-hand turn to Henderson Point...marked by signs. Do not turn to Henderson Point...Continue North on Rock Springs Baptist Church Road

Approximately 1/10 of a mile further, you will encounter and cross the border into Virginia.

Approximately 8/10 of a mile into Virginia, you will encounter Mill Creek Road; a left-turn only marked by the garbage dumpsters also on the left.

Turn left onto Mill Creek Road

Proceed slowly west on Mill Creek Road for 1/2 mile. The gate to Camp Campbell will be on your right.

Note: If you unlock the gate, be sure to lock it behind you !!

This page last updated Sunday, October 17, 1999